

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Edie McCulloch has gone to Louisville to visit friends.

Mr. Wallace W. Robertson, of Ed-dyville, spent Saturday in the city.

Capt. C. D. Bell and Esq. M. D. Davie are attending the Alliance Convention in St. Louis.

Mrs. Fannie B. Henry has gone to Louisville to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Wormald.

Miss Bettie Stevenson left for Louisville this morning where she goes to familiarize herself with the Spring styles in dressmaking.

Mrs. J. W. Stone has returned to her home in Clarksville, accompanied by Mrs. Lela E. Smith, from a visit to her aunt Mrs. Anna Shadoin.

Mr. J. W. Moody, formerly of Fairview, but now of the Pullman Palace Car service, spent several days of last week at the former place with his family. His headquarters are at Atlanta, Ga.

DEATHS.

HICKS, Benjamin Hicks died at his home near Crofton Saturday of consumption.

WILSON. Douglas Wilson, the 15 year-old son of the late Jas. M. Wilson, died of typhoid fever near Crofton Friday last.

Dr. W. W. White, the village physician of Claypool, Warren County, shuffled off his mortal coil with a pistol Friday. He was 27 years old and became tired of life.

LAWRENCE.—Robert Lawrence, an asylum patient, died of paralysis Saturday, aged 38 years. The remains were shipped to his home in Simpson county Sunday for interment.

"Aunt Betsy" McKay, born in 1786 and married in 1808, died Thursday at her home in Taylorsville. Two years older than the Government and six years the senior of the State of Kentucky, she lived to see the introduction of steamboats, railroads, telegraphs, telephones, electrical lighting and locomotion, and pretty much every other scientific mechanical appliance without which the present generation would hardly look upon life as worth the living.—Louisville Times.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of Forest Lodge No. 308, A. F. & A. M., held at their Lodge room, on Feb. 13, at Beverly, Ky., the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, He has pleased our Supreme Grand Master to remove from our midst Bro. B. A. Seay and translate him to the celestial Lodge above.

Resolved, That by the death of Bro. Seay, Forest Lodge has lost one of the brightest jewels in its crown; Masonry one of its staunchest supporters and society a man who was the soul of honor and whose inflexible integrity had won the respect, esteem and confidence of the community in which he lived.

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to him who doeth all things well and as he has promised to be a father to the fatherless, we implore his tender mercies and protecting care over the family of our deceased brother.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge, a copy be sent to the family of the deceased and a copy published in the county papers.

I. P. Davie, J. T. Stegar, Com. S. S. Spicer.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, God in his providence has removed from our midst one of our most beloved and useful brethren in the person of E. C. Griffin, we the members of Longview Lodge No. 416, A. F. & A. M., resolve, that in the death of our justly esteemed and deeply lamented brother our lodge has sustained an irreparable loss, and that while we reverently bow to this inscrutable ruling of the All-wise Architect in thus removing a highly wrought and polished Ashlar from us, we rejoice in the assurance that it has only been transference, in his wisdom to a higher sphere to be adjusted in that spiritual Temple not made with hands eternal in the Heavens.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased in the dispensation with which it hath pleased the Divine Master to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are in mercy, for we share with them the hope of a reunion in that celestial city above, where there are no partings and bliss forbids a tear.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Lodge, that a copy of them be transmitted to the family of the deceased and to the county papers and Orphans' Home Journal.

J. P. Garnett, Committee J. H. Bradshaw, J. M. Ament.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

HERE AND THERE.

Vitalia Liver Pills are mild and sure.

Capt. B. T. Underwood is now able to sit up again.

Bethel Female College has enrolled 41 boarding pupils since September.

Ducker & Underwood, undertakers, office opposite First National Bank.

Mr. C. E. Kennedy is improving under the treatment of Dr. Briggs in Nashville, where we are pleased to note.

Mr. W. H. Bowman and bride have returned from Nashville and will go to house keeping on Campbell street.

Mr. J. Y. Cabanis, of the firm of Maynard & Cabanis, Trenton, is now on the road representing a St. Louis house.

All of the Christian County contingent are taken care of in this month's revenue assignments by Collector Feland.

Mr. J. J. Ogburn is just up from a serious illness of long duration. He was attended by Dr. Blakey during his sickness.

The L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to St. Louis at one fare $7.95 Feb. 28, account Peoples' Party Convention. J. M. Adams, Agt.

The grand jury at Owensboro last week returned fifty-nine indictments against persons for selling cigarettes to boys under 18 years of age.

Mr. Dick Green is just getting up from a long protracted spell of typhoid fever that brought him to death's door. Dr. Seargent was his physician.

A rabid dog attacked Mr. Jno. R. Wooley, of Sinking Fork, while on his way to this city Saturday. Mr. Wooley finally killed the animal after a hard fight.

A Guthrie correspondent claims an average daily visit of 250 people to that place. Seventy-five per cent of that number pass through the place on the cars, however.

Any one wishing a Spring suit cheap should call on Frank Zinder, merchant tailor, Ninth street rear of First National Bank. Prices from $20 up. Pants from $5 up.

LOST. My dog "Speed," white pointer with liver head and ears and spot on back of neck, long tail and a few flea bitten spots on body. A liberal reward for his return to me. Eugene Wood.

The gap between the union depot and L. & N. depot will be completed, by the first day of June and few days later it is estimated that trains will be running over the Gracery branch into Hopkinsville.—Princeton Banner.

Mr. E. N. Miller's little child fell out of its cradle one day last week and rolling against the grate was painfully burned about the face, before his mother, who was in an adjoining room, could get to him.

The Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor Society will hold a social at the residence of Dr. Armstrong Thursday evening next at 7:30. There will be an interesting program and all are invited to attend.

Dr. A. J. Knapp, the celebrated optician, will be in Hopkinsville from April 1st and 2nd. As Dr. Knapp will not visit this city during March, parties desiring his services will do well to remember the above dates.

Mr. S. C. Mercer has let the contract to Forbes & Bro. to build a handsome three-story business house next to the Jewelry store of M. D. Kelly. It will have on the third floor the largest hall in the city, which will be 30 by 110 feet. The cost of the building will be about $6,000.

The attention of the farmers is directed to the tobacco sales of Hancock, Withers & Co., Clarksville, which appear elsewhere in this issue. They have made sale of thirty-three bbls. of new tobacco at prices ranging from $5.20 to $3.00 for hogs, and $8.70 for common to medium leaf.

Mr. Morgan moved his force of graders from Mrs. Phelps' field yesterday to L. W. Means' wheat field, beyond the third bridge over Little River, a mile from town. The two forces are now about 3 1/2 miles apart and working towards each other. Work on the Gracery will also begin in a few days.

The L. & N. railroad has let the contract to build their depot here to Forbes & Bro., for $3,271. Other furnishings not included in the contract will bring the cost up to something over $4,000. This is about $2,000 less than the estimated cost of the proposed depot was put when the permit was given to erect a frame building.

Esq. M. B. King, of Church Hill, will about April 1st establish an agency in the city for the Walter A. Wood reapers and mowers. He will not only handle these machines, but will be prepared to supply binding twine and repairs of all kinds during the season. He will be located with the Union Supply Company, on Ninth Street.

The fight for the Training School is believed, will narrow down to Hopkinsville and Franklin. Elizabethtown wants it but is raising more wind than money and will not be a fit to meet business propositions from other towns. Franklin has raised $5,000 and a site and is trying to make it $10,000. Hopkinsville can do better than any other town seeking this school and a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together will get the prize.

MATRIMONIAL.

John Storms and Miss Eliza Tier, living in the Eastern part of this county eloped to Clarksville Saturday and were married in the court house. They boarded the train at Cerulean Springs to escape the eyes of watchful parties.—Princeton Banner.

HILL-GAINES.—Mr. R. L. Hill and Miss Mattie E. Gaines, both of Montgomery, were married at the Arlington hotel in Clarksville, at 11 a. m. Thursday last, Rev. A. W. Boone performing the ceremony. Mr. A. L. Blaine and Miss Tommie Petree, of the same neighborhood, attended them.

Miss Bircie Cummins and Fred Hipple, Jr., of the Scottsburg neighborhood, eloped to Clarksville last week and were married in the parlors of the Arlington Hotel. Mr. Hipple is interested in the rock quarries near Scottsburg, and is originally from Paducah, and his bride is one of the most popular young ladies in that portion of the county.—Princeton Banner.

Nashville American Thursday: "Local Jewish society participated in a marriage at the Temple last night and a reception at the Maxwell house, which was planned and executed upon a plane of elaborate liberality rarely, if ever, before attempted in Hebrew circles. Miss Hannah Lowenthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowenthal, a young lady of rare accomplishments, was given in marriage to Mr. Arthur O. Kleiman, a merchant of Clarksville, Tenn., and a native of that city, well-known and popular with all classes. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Lowenthal."

MARRIAGE LICENSE. COLORED.

Peter Trice to Minnie Quarles. Abe Whitlock to Sue Richards.

The Last Lecture.

The Atlanta Constitution says of Mr. Ambrose, the last of the Chautauqua lecturers:

"Mr. Ambrose is almost unreportable because of the sentimentousness and force of his style, and the poetic beauty of his language. He speaks with absolute self-command, and holds his audience with a magic spell. He is well-nigh inimitable as a lecturer. It is only once in a great while that any audience is favored with so charming a speaker."

"As a lecturer James Clement Ambrose is able, timely, incisive."—Joseph Cook.

James Clement Ambrose, who lectures at the Opera House March 3rd, is a gentleman so popular that this season he lectures at fourteen Assemblies. For original thought, deftness in sentences and incisive wit Mr. Ambrose cannot be excelled. You sit listening, fascinated and amazed.

As has been previously stated Mr. W. T. Keatts, a former druggist of Howell, has opened up a full line of drugs and druggists' sundries at Gracery. He is occupying the brick building formerly occupied by Pool & Sims, the latter firm having moved to a new store house adjoining. Mr. Keatts will handle nothing but fresh and reliable drugs and medicines, and being a registered pharmacist, will give his personal attention to all prescriptions entrusted to him. He is a very popular young business man and will make friends and custom in the new field as in the old, substantial and lasting.

TOBACCO NEWS.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., FEB. 18, 1891. Sale of 23 bbls. of new tobacco to date by Hancock, Withers & Co.

11 Bbls. common and medium large 3 25 3 30 3 70 3 30 3 40 3 50 4 40 4 10 4 20 5 20.

22 Bbls. common and medium leaf 6 00 6 50 6 60 6 25 6 50 6 75 6 80 6 75 7 50 7 20 7 00 7 00 7 00 7 25 7 25 7 80 8 00 8 00 8 70.

A fine tobacco season has prevailed for the past few days and the farmers have taken advantage of the opportunity to handle every pound possible. A large quantity of the weed was prized, and much of the crop was brought to the market loose and sold at very satisfactory prices.

The Square.

The Square, Ky., Feb. 22, 1892. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Morris, of Elmo, Ky., were visiting Mrs. Hattie Morgan, on Sunday last.

Mrs. Bettie Jordan, of Headystown, paid a flying visit to this place last Sunday.

Mr. Preston Thomas, of Hopkinsville, was visiting Mr. M. A. Mason last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Lee H. West, of Longview, was on The Square last Saturday.

Mr. J. H. Ogleby has finished delivering his tobacco and returned to his home at White Plains, Kentucky.

Mrs. Hattie Morgan will go over to Nashville this week on business.

Mr. Thomas J. Ryan, of Pon, Ky., will take charge of the office at this place the first day of March.

"CORI"

Mrs. R. McKinney, of Roaring Spring, fell from an invalid's chair one day last week, and broke one of her limbs. Mrs. McKinney had been sick for some time and with this setback it is now feared she will never entirely recover.

CREAM OF NEWS.

A Farmer Suicides.

J. F. Hunter, a prominent farmer tobacco man of Montgomery county, Tenn., committed suicide at his home last Thursday by taking laudanum. Hunter was a drinking man and had been on a protracted spree. The only cause assigned is that he had become despondent.

Sam Jones Will Come.

Mr. H. C. Richards has been for some time in correspondence with Rev. Sam Jones with a view to getting him to hold a meeting here in June. As there is no public hall large enough, Mr. Richards suggested that a tent might be procured and received the following reply under date of Feb. 11:

"I could not consent to use a tent under any circumstance for a meeting. I have used them and found them an ice box in winter and a sweat box in summer, and I have, as the saying is, literally sworn off from the use of tents. Now as to a meeting later along in one of your warehouses, I will not fill my time for the summer fall, but will try to reserve a week or ten days for you all when we can get a warehouse."

Yours Truly, Sam P. Jones."

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Lindsey and John Freeman, charged with grand larceny, was called in the Circuit Court at Cadiz last Thursday. John Freeman, who was out on a $300 bond, failed to put in his appearance, and his bond was declared forfeited. Lindsey Freeman asked a continuance in his case, which was granted. The Freemans are charged with breaking open the store house of Esquire J. T. Hammond at Caledonia, more than a year ago, and taking therefrom various articles of merchandise.

CITY COURT NEWS.

Aaron Adams, col., trespass, fined $10 and costs.

George Green, col., breach of peace, given ten days in the work house.

Jno. Clay, drunk, fined $5 and costs.

Same, disorderly conduct, sent to work house for 30 days.

Lewis Lloyd and Clara McKee, both colored, hogstealing, dismissed.

Same, carrying off the property of another without felonious intent, left open.

Crofton.

Chorron, Ky., 20, 1892.—Farmers are jubilant to-day over the tobacco season we are having, it being the first good season since the weed was housed.

Joseph Hight, Sr., has left with Myers & Jackson sixteen well matured ears of corn in one shock which he raised in his crop.

Thos. Martin and his son Frank came to blows with M. M. Haley last Saturday. We understand the trouble grew out of the Martins killing Haley's dog. Haley surrendered himself to Esq. John M. West, whereupon the Esquire charged him one dollar for the insult to the Commonwealth with the trimmings for himself. Warrants were issued for Mr. Martin and son.

Douglas Wilson, son of Esq. Jas. Wilson, deceased, died this week of typhoid fever, aged fifteen.

Ben Hicks who has been a long sufferer from consumption died to-day at his home. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn their loss. To them we extend our condolence.

Mr. Lynn, of Earlington, has bought Mrs. Mollie T. Johnston's timber and will remove his saw mill there soon.

W. E. West and Miss Vick Craner were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Thos. Craner Tuesday evening. They were given a reception at the groom's father's Esq. John M. West, Wednesday, but owing to the rain Wednesday the invited guests had to dine without the bride and groom. The groom is an industrious young man. We congratulate him on his success in winning his prize. The bride is a handsome brunette, with winning ways, which made for her many friends. We hope their reunion may be one dream of love shadowed by few clouds.

Dr. E. H. Putman will return from Nashville Medical College Wednesday well equipped for pill driving. He will probably locate at Mannington. The Crofton Academy has had several students to matriculate within the last two weeks. It begins to look like it is on a boom, but what could we expect but success with Prof. C. B. Pitman at the wheel?
